REPORT THAT LEMBERG FALLS

Rumore in Berlin That Capital of Galicia Is Captured and Occupied.

LONDON, June 22.—Persistent rumors in Berlin say Lemberg has fallen, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch via Copenhagen. The Russian retreat, the dispatch said, was due to weakness of its artillery and its lack of ammunition.

PETROGRAD, June 22.—With the Russians opposing the Austro-Germans on a line six miles from Lemberg, it is unofficially considered here that the evacuation of the Galician capital cannot be avoided without a sacrifice of men out of proportion to the strategic importance of the place.

Realty Firm Favors Project

WEST SIDE CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

ImportantAffairsToComeUp

Tonight the second meeting of the West Side Commercial Club since its rejuvenation will be held. The members will convene in the offices of Stidman & Wernse, Richmond and Washington avenues, and if the attendance warrants the meeting will be adjourned to meet in their headquarters in the Anderson building.

It is expected that important reports will be received from the various committee heads, that were appointed at the last meeting. Two important committees are the nommittee to interview the Santa Fe company with the object in view of urging the construction of the union depot and the committee on the bay shore bouleard project. The Commercial Club has considered McKenzie & Hogg, large realty owners on the pay shore, to be the opponents of the project.

When interviewed last night, C. H. Hogg stated that he was glad the local body had taken up the project again. "I am willing to meet the Commercial Club more than half way in this matter, and our company will do anything within reason to see this splendid plan put through to a successful finish this summer, when highway construction work will be feasible. However, we cannot be expected to sacrifice fifty or more lots to allow the construction of the road. I have not been approached by any of the club's committee, but I will probably be present at the meeting Wednesday night."

The proposed Bay Shore boulevard will extend from the bay entrance of the new municipal tunnel north to Standard Oil cut, running parallel to the shore line, a hundred feet or more above it. Plans and grades of the project have already been prepared.

President Garrard will not be present at the meeting of the club tonight, as he must attend the city council committee meetings in the capacity of mayor.

FORBES FINDS THAT ADVERTISING IN NEWS BRINGS MOST RESULTS

The sale held by A. S. Forbes Dry Goods store last Friday was a big success. In advertising it, Mr. Forbes ran ads in the Daily News and the Independent. In each ad he requested that the readers bring a copy of the ad so as to find out which paper brought the most purchasers.

Yesterday he said:

"There were more answers from Daily News readers. And the sale was certainly a big success."

Forbes is a progressive business man. He wanted to find out the best advertising medium in Richmond. He found it. It was the Daily News. Such a test cannot be denied. The Record-Herald refused to take part in the test.

Forbes' store has been declared "the fairest in Richmond" by the Women's Union Label League.

REPORT ON BIG ACCIDENT TO S.F.

A detailed account of the accident near Point Orient that cost one life and seriously injured another of Standard Oil employes, has been submitted to the head office in San Francisco.

What action, if any, will be taken by that office is not known. New instructions as to precautions against accidents will be issued, it is expected.

It is not thought that any individual or the present method of bringing the men in from Point Orient will be blamed.

There will be an installation of officers on July 24, followed by a banquet.

PETALUMA LUCKY TO WIN GAME LAST SUNDAY

Petaluma admits that it was only by luck that Sunday's game was saved. Their team must be going from bad to worse. This is what the live sporting page of the town has to say:

"With Petaluma on the verge of defeat for the third consecutive time, Andrade, in left field pulled down a hard drive in the eighth with all the bases occupied, and Johnny Kennedy, who should have been in the local lineup long ago, singled through short, near second, and drove in two runs in the same inning, the timely stunts of the two Leghorns pulling the game out of the fire by a score of 4 to 3 against Vallejo Sunday afternoon."

Valuable prizes will be given the winners.

M.W.A. PLAN TO ORGANIZE BALL TEAM AND BAND

At their meeting last night in Woodmen Hall, the Modern Woodmen of America laid plans to organize a baseball team and an orchestra in the near future. One member was initiated into the order and a committee will be named in a few days to complete arrangements for a large initiation of a class of 25 some time next month. Following the initiation a banquet will be served to the new members. The public is invited to the drill team dance next Saturday in W. O. W. Hall. Admittance will be 50 cents, while ladies will be complimentary. Schwartz orchestra will furnish the music.

TONIGHT NEW GERMAN SOCIETY ELECTS HEADS

The first meeting of the recently organized Gesang Verein Vorwarts will be held this evening in Socialist Hall.

All German speaking Richmond people are urged to attend. The society is a Socialist organization and already has 30 members.

TO PERFORM ON TOP OF FLAGPOLE

Daily News Arranges Great Open Air Exhibition—Free Tickets to Lyric to Be Given.

Bobby Simpson, world-famous steeplejack and aeronaut and also known in Oakland as "the man who solved the unemployed problem," will perform feats of daring tonight between the hours of 6 and 7 on the Elks building flagpole, the highest in Richmond.

Bobby will appear at the Lyric theater directly afterwards in a lecture, "Life Behind Prison Walls," which is illustrated by 60 slides, showing scenes taken from the largest and most notorious prisons of the world. Bobby has made an exhaustive study of his subject and those who are fortunate enough to hear him tonight at the Lyric will receive a thrill that they will long remember.

And conversational thrills are not the only kind that Bobby Simpson delivers. A short time ago, when appearing at the Columbia theater in Oakland, he did a 12-hour endurance test on top of the flagpole of the Security Bank building. As an aeronaut he is known as the only man who has ever accomplished the feat of looping the loop in a parachute, attempting which six daring aeronauts have lost their lives.

Tonight on the Elks flagpole he will perform some sensational feats, and will scatter down on the crowd free tickets to the Lyric theater with the compliments of the Daily News.

Later in the week Bobby may attempt an endurance test such as he accomplished in Oakland, and he may also give a balloon ascension. He is scheduled to perform a 24-hour test on the Oregon flagpole at the Exposition. This is the tallest flagpole on earth.

7 Bound For War, Arrested In N.Y. City

NEW YORK, June 22.—Seven of the San Francisco men who, through the efforts of Ralph K. Blair, were recruited in San Francisco and enlisted as reservists in the British army, were today arrested in New York, while on their way to Europe, and are being held by the United States government for transportation back to San Francisco.

The men are held as witnesses, the government officials in New York announced today, in the federal investigation into the charges of Franz Bopp, consul general of the Imperial German government in San Francisco, that Blair and others have been conducting a British recruiting office at 68 Fremont street.

WANTS AGENT PROSECUTED

OTTO MUELLER NOT TO PROSECUTE

Has Clerk Arrested-Then Puts Up Bail For Him

WHAT PIERCE SAYS.

Officer Betts brought Mueller up to my office yesterday. Betts had four pairs of shears and other articles of hardware that he had taken from Hellsinger's home. Mueller identified these articles as having been taken from his store.

I told him that I meant to have Hellsinger rearrested on a petty larceny charge, charging the theft of the shears. Mueller asked me how severe a sentence could be imposed in case of conviction and I told him the maximum misdemeanor penalty. He said that was all right, as he didn't want to send anybody to San Quentin.

Besides articles from Mueller's store, belting and machinery parts, apparently taken from the Santa Fe shops, were found in Hellsinger's house. I believe that there will be surprising developments, as I think he had a friend in the shops who was supplying him with valuable tools, etc., and that he was selling these to hardware stores. I do not understand Mueller's statement that he signed the complaint without knowing what it was.

We will prosecute Hellsinger to the full extent of the law.

FORSYTH CIRCUIT TO PRESENT THE 'COUNTRY STORE'

The Forsyth Circuit makes an entry into both Richmond and Point Richmond next week, opening at the Point theater and the Lyric with the great laughing hit, "The Country Store."

Everywhere "The Country Store" plays return engagements. In San Francisco it played several vaudeville houses for weeks. The Forsyth Circuit books a large string of moving picture houses all over the state, putting on feature attractions, and their entrance into Richmond with T"he Country Store" is sure to score a big hit.

The Martinez Standard, commenting on the performance of this interesting entertainment at the Novelty in that city last week, says: "It is novel because you have to travel the universe over to see such an original idea."

Besides the entertainment it affords, the stage is set with groceries and merchandise, which are distributed among the audience.

BROADWAY GLIDE AND GRAPEVINE TO BE TAUGHT

The Broadway Glide and Grapevine two-step will be taught at the Richmond Club dancing class this afternoon.

Madame Foreman Emric, teacher of the class, is one of the leading authorities of the state on the modern dances.

WIERD TWISTS IN ROBBERY MYSTERY

With the arrest of George Hellsinger on a warrant sworn to by his former proprietor, Otto Mueller, charging petty larceny, sensational developments in the mysterious daylight robbery of Mueller's store have come to light.

The case has evolved from a hold-up which was doubted by the police, into a prosecution of Hellsinger by the district attorney's office on a charge of petit larceny.

Hellsinger was arrested yesterday at his home, 20 Seventh street, by Inspector Betts on a warrant sworn to by Mueller. He was soon after released from jail on the deposit of $50 bail by Mueller.

The accompanying statements explain the radically different views held by Otto Mueller and Assistant District Attorney Wilbur Pearce.

Both men were interviewed in their homes last night, Mueller first at the home of Hellsinger, 20 Seventh street, and Wilbur Pearce later.

AID SOCIETY TO MEET AT HOME OF MRS. BENNETT

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bennett on the west side.

WHAT MUELLER SAYS.

It's all a mistake. I didn't know I was swearing out a warrant for the arrest of my friend. I just signed a paper that Hellsinger handed to me, without reading it, and I don't call signing a paper swearing. They told me to sign this paper and I did.

When I found out that he was arrested I went over and bailed him out. I paid $50 to get Hellsinger out, and you don't think I would do that if I wanted him arrested.

I certainly won't prosecute him, and I wish this thing was all over. I still believe that Hellsinger's story is true.

NO TRACKS IN TUNNEL NOW

There will be no tracks in the municipal tunnel until business conditions are better. So declared Mayor Garrard last night.

"It would cost all of $30,000 to lay tracks through the tunnel and out to the harbor," he said, "and we couldn't raise that much.

"There is no possibility of getting a railroad to do it. Times are such that it is difficult to get them to lay a switch let alone anything like the tunnel project."

Concrete work on the tunnel has been completed and the bituilthic surfaces will be laid immediately. Curbing and gutters have been laid from seventy hundred feet beyond the outer portal of the bore.

When the big job will be finished cannot yet be said definitely.

"I expected it would be done by this time," said Garrard. "But it isn't and there is a lot more to be done."

GETS POCKETS PICKED IN S.F.

Samuel H. Carter, carpenter, 221 Bishop avenue, Monday went to the big city across the bay.

He returned minus $26. There is little tragedy in that until one knows that he got nothing in return for that $26.

Carter, in a word, had his pockets picked while he was gazing at the tall buildings, presumably.

The police were notified.

CRIME AND ITS CAUSE.

A revolver manufacturer's advertisement contains the following statement:

"Society trains criminals as carefully as it does lawyers or doctors—and graduates more of them. There will always be criminals as long as the training schools of crime exist—rum holes, prisons, opium joints and gang-infested corners."

That is as far as the advertiser goes in his explanation of crime. It leaves unexplained how the graduates of "rum holes, prisons, opium joints, and gang-infested corners" will pass their time after these have been abolished. It is easy to say that they will be engaged in honest work, but hard to prove. Thousands of men are today unemployed and looking in vain for work who do not frequent such places. Opportunities for work would not be increased by their abolition. That would only increase competition for whatever jobs there are.

It is true that society trains criminals. It trains them by so limiting opportunities to earn an honest living that many are involuntarily unemployed. Even without the evils mentioned in the advertisement, many of these unemployed would be compelled to resort to crime. The process may be hastened or intensified by the "rum holes" and other places, as it may also be hastened by increasing the supply of the latest improvement in revolvers, but that is as much as can be fairly charged against them. The limiting of opportunities to live without crime, is the cause of crime, which must be removed.

Limitation of opportunities is the result of laws that encourage monopolization and withholding from use of natural resources. In a country big enough and rich enough to give the entire population of the world opportunities to produce all that is needed to supply wants, there is no excuse for an involuntarily unemployed class. That such a class nevertheless exists is because of the laws mentioned. The remedy is to make unprofitable the withholding from use of natural opportunities. This can be done by taking for public use the rental value of land, irrespective of improvement and abolishing taxes of every kind on labor and its products.

AT ITS OWN EXPENSE.

No semi-public enterprise, no celebration, no public movement for the material or moral upbuilding of a community—nothing that is dependent on public interest or support—has promise of success unless the newspaper can be enlisted, at its own expense, says the Stockton Record.

The merchant is paid for his Fourth of July hunting, but the newspaper gladly gives columns of promotion matter, at its own expense.

The public service corporation, the railroad and other big enterprises are granted rights of way, and are boosted and backed by public bodies with no expectation that anyone but the stockholders will clip the coupons; but a newspaper stands behind the boosters and the boosted, at its own expense.

Men and organizations of a semi-public nature with plans and schemes (all the profits and glory going to the promoters and owners) feel free to draft the newspaper for service, at the newspaper's own expense.

Even the minister or priest who stands at the graveside is, in this latter day, usually compensated for his holy service; but the newspaper gives time and attention to the sorrows as well as the joys of its constituency, at its own expense.

The average wage in the newspaper office is higher than in nearly any other class of enterprise. The modern newspaper is not the product of amateurs, but of trained men, skilled mechanics and business specialists. The payroll of the average large store would be lost when placed beside that of the average daily newspaper.

This is not shop talk; it is facts—facts easily provable to investigators.

Newspaper support and aid—newspaper contribution of costly space, labor and service—these are supposed to be had for the asking.

Possibly newspaper owners are to blame for not themselves first appreciating their value of their service and emphasizing it on the public.

Perhaps they are to blame for not making their columns worth as much as calico, spuds and monkey-wrenches.

Perhaps if they placed a tariff on all publicity save that of actual news and insisted on sharing some of the benefits of their own service, their service to the community would be more appreciated.

At least the newspapers ought to have a "thank you," if others get the dollars and the larger credit for their service.

True, a newspaper has a love to serve, a duty to discharge and a patriotic attachment to declare. But it could do all this generously, and rest while many more pretentious public enterprises were catching up.

HAPPENINGS IN THE SPORTING WORLD : :

Richmond Will Win Next Sunday's Game Which Puts Us On Top, Just The Same!

Four days must pass before Richmond will have a chance to come back on Sebastopol and beat her. However, time will but whet our appetites for the struggle, and fill us with confidence of Richmond's triumph next Sunday. There is not a single fan who witnessed last Sunday's heartbreaking game but is confident that Richmond is the better team, and that she will win next Sunday. Every player on the Elk team is now on to young Bliss' hurling and will be able to poke his slants to the far corners of the lot in the next conference.

Next Sunday's game will probably be the largest attended game ever played on the local lot, as it is always pleasing to root for the home town boys, while they are beating an out of the town nine composed for the great part of Coast League players. Every Richmond fan should be out to the game and root, for Sebastopol backs up their team loyally, and will be down here by the hundreds to root next Sunday.

A certain sport scribe of the Vallejo Tribune, without much insight into conditions, or remembrance of the defeat of 12 to 4 inflicted by the locals on Petaluma, "Savagely" remarks thusly:

"Richmond was defeated by Sebastopol by the score of 7 to 6. The oil town boys were full of confidence that they would bring home the bacon, and it was with much chagrin that they were forced to carry home with them the sad tidings. With Petaluma and Sebastopol evidently the best teams in the "big four," it is scarcely probable that the regular league schedule will be arranged, as was previously proposed."

AND WHAT IS MORE, RICHMOND WILL DEFEAT SEBASTOPOL NEXT SUNDAY.

RITCHIE-HENDRICKS MATCH NOT THE ONLY CLASS ON THURSDAY CARD

Although the main event at Derby Floyd's boxing show, to be fought by Earl Ritchie and Henry Hendricks, is about the nicest looking thing in the boxing line that we have lamped for some time, this mill is not glomming all the limelight in these parts. Take them from start to finish and from top to bottom these Richmond fight fans are a wise bunch of birds and they realize that Matchmaker Richmond and Floyd have prepared a card that is good from start to finish and that is not topheavy, with one good bout coming after a bunch of bloomers.

All the matches shake up like good ones. There are five bouts beside the main event, and every one of them promises lots of action.

Frank Brazil, the scrappy little bantam, who is fast developing into a lightweight, has a legion of friends who expect him to clean Ivy Johnson, the conqueror of Young Butch. Brazil is working harder for this fight than any of his others. Realizing that a win over the Oakland man means a sudden pleasing rise in his stock. This tough little bird looks like a comer, and the fans will all be there to watch him perform against Johnson.

Kid Thompson, the San Pablo meteor, has finished his training for the bout with Joe Frank, West Oakland's favorite. Thompson is a good looking boy. We say this, remembering that he lost a decision to "Fighting" Jimmy Dundee, the Oakland newsboy king. But Dundee has yet to be beat and he is about the classiest kid of his size in his state. And to Thompson's credit it must be said that he came nearer beating Dundee than any of the boys the diminutive Irishman has been up against so far.

Ed Brown, an Oakland boy, who has boxed twice here, will take on Battling Verry, a tough youngster from across the county line.

Joe Perry and Dick Jones will step four rounds. The curtain raiser will be a hair-raiser as well.

SANTA CLARA WILL ALSO GO BACK TO OLD GAME

That the University of California's return to the old game was a popular move among the big schools of the state is evinced by the following:

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—That Santa Clara will follow the lead of the University of California if the latter school definitely decides to play American football, was the statement here today of gridiron authorities, who claimed to have recent information cent information.

Santa Clara is the third most important football university in the state, and her withdrawal from the Rugby field will leave Stanford without an opponent to play.

Richmond's lesser lights in the baseball heavens fared badly Sunday, also. But two, the Cheek Cubs and the Elk Juniors, being able to down their opponents.

Petaluma fans gurgle with mirth every Sunday at certain cracks which their alleged clever "Megephone" score cards has inscribed thereon. Here are the only good ones on the card used in the game with Vallejo:

"That Vallejo bunch may come from Mare Island, but they will go home with a horse on them."

"Today we won't hand them an egg. It will be an orange, the "Naval" variety. Or a lemon."

"Richmond certainly was "oil" right last Sunday."

THE POPE AND THE VATICAN MOTION PICTURES.

Of the remarkable views of the Pope and the Vatican, now at the Macdonough, Oakland, secured by Hon. James Slevin, the New York Sun recently said:

"The Hon. James Slevin, who has proven himself intolerably emcient in various enterprises, has finally succeeded in breaking through the traditional conservatism of the Vatican and presents us His Holiness, the late Pius X and various impressive ceremonies in lifelike motion pictures. This is the latest and unquestionably one of the greatest achievements of the motion picture art.

"An elaborate stage setting, with great attention to detail, Belascolike effects, and appropriate musical accompaniment, rounded off the whole into a very interesting entertainment. The crowds attending showed extraordinary enthusiasm. The Pope, himself, as well as Cardinal Merry del Val, Cardinal O'Connell and other prominent prelates, were received with unanimous applause.

"Although these pictures have been shown with considerable success at the Gaumont Palace in Paris, and in the circuit of theaters called the 'Palais de Luxe' in and about London, where we are given to understand they have made a tremendous hit, this is their first appearance in New York. It is a very propitious one, and from indications last night the exhibition will continue here indefinitely. In fact, there is no reason to our mind why it should not surpass the high financial record reached by 'Quo Vadis' and 'Cabiria.'"

AT RICHMOND THEATRE TODAY

In just the same way that staged productions are built about the personality of some great star, the modern successful photodrama has found it necessary to enlist the greatest actors of the profession. This is particularly true of "The Dollar Mark," in which William A. Brady has secured the services of America's foremost actor, Robert Warwick. Today and tomorrow this great feature will be shown at the Richmond theater.

The story centers around the attempt of Carson Baylis to get hold of the mine belonging to Jim Gresham, who with his friend Martin refuses to sell. In a storm that breaks while Baylis is at the mine a flood sweeps the valley and forces Alice Chandler an artist, to accept the hospitality of Jim's hut. The house is destroyed by a flood and Jim and Alice drift down with the current on a raft until rescued by Martin on horseback. Afterwards Baylis attempts to break Gresham's bank, but fails and Alice is claimed by Gresham as a prize.

SPLITS AND CHERRIES.

By THE UNLUCKY BOWLER.

George Henry, the bowler from the Orpheum alleys of San Francisco, defeated W. W. Wood of this city last night in the second game of their two-game series by the score of 991 to 968. His majority was large enough to offset the defeat he sustained here by Wood last Saturday. The score for both games:

Henry—1914.
Wood—1868.

The game was played on the Orpheum alleys of San Francisco.

Last night was choose-up night at the Seventh street alleys, but as there were not enough bowlers present there was a two-man team game. Bevan and McCabe played Anderson and Wright and were defeated by over 50 pins.

Mrs. V. M. Conover, 443½ Seventh street, leaves today for Santa Cruz, where she will spend a few days in the mountains.
